

Team Building Itinerary Killarney Valley

Hike, boat and bike with options to climb, abseil in the Killarney Lake Valley

This afternoon of multi-activity will be run over the most dramatic landscapes in Ireland and involve 8 kms of walking followed by 12 kms of biking – as a leisurely activity adventure.

Stage One

Hiking through the Killarney National Park in the ancient oak woods of Tomies finishing on the shores of Loch Léin at O'Sullivan's Cascade.

Stage Two

Pick up at a remote location, deep in the forest by private boat ride through the Lakes of Killarney to the headwaters of the famed waterway at the mouth of the Black Valley.

Stage Three

Bike beneath the majestic McGillicuddy Reeks and into the Gap of Dunloe (or easier option; out to Derrycunihy).
