Stay in a suite fit for a king and feel as pampered as a princess. Drink up the atmosphere in the Doolittle bar, bursting with stories from the illustrious guests who have frequented the hotel during our long history.

"It is a place of long sea views and intricate walks between ferns and fuchsias, rock and rhododendron, to burnt-out castles lost within the woods and along the various fingers of land that point South West into the warm Atlantic. I tell you this place does not belong to any world that you and I have ever worked or lived in... it is part of our dream world."
